

Beech Court, Concord, MA

A new traditional 5 bedroom wood frame house set on a sloping site in Concord's Nashawtuc Hill neighborhood. The entrance side of the house presents a welcoming scaled-down façade while the garden side opens up to a generous, sun filled terrace held back by overlapping fieldstone retaining walls. The interior spaces feature a library and garden room, as well as a third floor suite.

Builder J.W. Adams Construction
Landscape Design Stephen Stimson Associates

